BUILDING STRONGER COMMUNITIES

Center for Pan Asian Community Services, Inc. (CPACS) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization located in Atlanta, Georgia. Our mission is to promote self-sufficiency and equity for immigrants, refugees, and the underprivileged through comprehensive health and social services, capacity building, and advocacy.

Established as the first and largest Asian and Pacific Islander health and human service agency in the Southeast region, CPACS has been providing its core group of services to immigrant and refugee families in Georgia since 1980.

CPACS relies on the generosity of donors in order to continue providing multifaceted health and human service programs to the Asian American community in Georgia. To volunteer and/or donate, please visit www.cpac.org or call 770-936-0969.
